SUMMARY:

Creative and motivated designer with a strong foundation in branding, visual identity, and UX/UI design, recently graduated from Digital Design & Development studies in Belgium. Passionate about crafting thoughtful, user-centered experiences and visual systems that communicate clearly and creatively.

A fast learner with a strong work ethic, I bring both artistic intuition and digital thinking to every project. Currently seeking opportunities to grow within a collaborative design team, while also open to freelance projects in branding, web, and interface design.
